County Queens' Chairperson report: Given by Julene.

Julene gave a brief report on all of the events the Queens have been busy with some of them being Green County Fair, State Fair, Boone County Fair, Brodhead Covered Bridges Days, numerous parades and the list goes on.

President Kamholz thanked the girls and stated the girls have been doing an exceptional job and should be very proud.

Lisa Behnke then wanted to thank the Ag Chest Board for their efforts especially getting the trailers to and from all of the events and all the prep work that goes along with the trailers. Pam and Julene for their hard work put into the Queens' schedule, Bonnie and Judy for all of the hard work and planning that goes into the cream puff making and ordering product.

Old Business:

- Boone County Fair- Green County Ag Chest was very well received and definitely missed. Very good fair, a profit was made and the board would like to commit to attending next year.
- Breakfast on the Farm- had its last meeting July 30th at President Kamholz's. A few changes and improvements were discussed and made for 2013.

New Business:

- 2012 Cheese Days- September 14, 15 and 16. Sign up sheets are available for both trailers at the meeting tonight, all parents are encouraged to sign up as it will take a lot of effort on everyone's' part.
- Roscoe Fall Fest- sign up sheets for that event are available tonight as well. That is September 7, 8 and 9.
- The Queens' present demonstrated their 2 minute radio ads that they prepared about their hometown. The ads will be recorded for Cheese days advertising.
- VP Ditzenberger provided detail about the meeting he called the previous week for the queens. He two well known volunteers demonstrate media interviews, makeup and clothes for public events to the girls.

Closing prayer was then given by Ally Carter, Argyle Queen.

MOTION to adjourn, Ditzenberger/ Alyssa Cramer.

Meeting adjourned at 9:05 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Candee J. Christen, Secretary
